IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPLUICATION NO.8460 OF 2005
IN CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.880 OF 2002

Mrs.Shrividya Ramesh Ramu Applicant versus
S.S.Vasan and others Respondent

Ravi Rattesure i/by Sanjay Bhatia for applicant.
P.A.Pol, APP for respondent.

CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 21th September 2006

PC :

1. Perused the application. Also perused the order passed by this Court on 22nd November 2005 dismissing the main matter in default. The main matter was dismissed in default on two occasions. It was restored on the first occasion. On the second occasion none appeared but apparently no order was passed.

2. On the third occasion i.e. on 22nd November 2005 none appeared. It appears that the applicant is not interested in prosecuting the petition. Application for restoration does not set out any reasons as to why on three occasions the applicant’s advocate could not find time to argue the matter or was prevented by any reason to do so. Application for restoration is also dismissed.

(S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.)